Accessing “Don’t Make Me Think” by Steve Krug in the Safari Tech Books collection:

1) Go to this page in the library database portal http://furbo.gmu.edu/dbwiz/alpha.php?start=s

2) Click on “Safari Tech Books Online.” It is the second link at the top of the list. If you are off-campus, you will be prompted to log-in using your Mason email username and password.

4) If searched by ISBN, the next page will be the home page for the book. Access the book through the “Table of Contents” link or through the “Start Reading” link.

5) Book HTML View:

6) Printing is possible, but essentially only the page or pages that are being viewed will be printed at one time.

7) When you are finished with the book, please make sure to close out of Safari. This will release the book for another user.

Thanks! Contact Theresa Calcagno [tcalcagn@gmu.edu] with your questions about using Safari.
